Celebrate GIS Day 2018 at the O’Neill Library Boston College

Join us at the O'Neill Library for a celebration of GIS Day November 14, 2018

Browse BC GIS posters on the 2nd and 3rd floor of O’Neill

Learn more about Geographic Information Systems and how this powerful data mapping tool can enhance your research through posters and a book exhibit.

Sign up for a class on Georectifying Historical Maps Using ArcMap Digital Studio at 11:00 a.m.

We are also celebrating the 10th year of our Boston College GIS Contest!

Find entry form at: http://bclib.bc.edu/form/gis-contest

Try a chocolate globe while they last . . .
